

METRO REGIONAL QUALITY COUNCIL

To improve the quality of services and supports for people with disabilities

Who We Are

The Metro Regional Quality Council (MRQC) is a group of people with disabilities, their families, county workers, the Department of Human Services, community members, and service providers.

We serve people that receive services and support in Hennepin, Scott, and Dakota counties.

What We Do

- Work to promote and connect communities so people have services and supports to live a life based on their hopes and dreams.
- Develop and implement quality improvement projects based on person-centered principles.
- Create system-wide change by sharing best practices, resources, and making recommendations for local and statewide changes to improve quality of services.

How We Serve

- Connecting and collaborating with the community through listening sessions, focus groups and informational interviews
- Gathering and reviewing data on the quality of services and supports for people with disabilities
- Tracking and monitoring different systems that shape the quality of life for people with disabilities

How to Get Involved

We are gathering information and want to hear from you!

- People with disabilities
- Family members of people with disabilities
- Case managers
- Employment support professionals
- Employers
- Direct support professionals

Share your experiences by attending a listening session, focus groups or informational interview.
